ARTICLE III.

The nature of the business and the objects and purposes proposed to be transacted, promoted and carried on, are to do any or all the things herein mentioned, as fully and to the same extent as natural persons might or could do, and in any part of the world, namely, to engage in any lawful act or activity for which corporations may be organized under the Delaware General Corporation Law.

ARTICLE IV.

(1) The total number of shares which the corporation is authorized to issue is five thousand (5,000) shares of common stock and the aggregate par value of all of said shares is Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) and the par value of each share is One Dollar ($1.00) per share.

(2) The shares of stock of this corporation may be issued by this corporation from time to time for such consideration, not less than the par value thereof, except as otherwise provided by law, as from time to time may be fixed by the Board of Directors of the corporation; and all issued shares of the capital stock of the corporation shall be deemed fully paid and nonassessable and the holders of such shares shall not be liable thereunder to this corporation or to its creditors.

(3) No shareholder of this corporation shall have any preemptive or preferential right of subscription to any shares of any stock of this corporation, issued or sold, nor any right of subscription to any thereof other than such, if any, as the Board of Directors of this corporation in its discretion from time to time may determine.

ARTICLE V.

The existence of this corporation is to be perpetual.

ARTICLE VI.

The directors shall have power to make and to alter or amend the By-Laws, to fix the amount to be reserved as working capital, and to authorize and cause to be executed,
